

FI 352 : Financial Management (Corporate Finance)

Study of the financial management of the typical corporation. Topics include stock valuation, risk analysis, capital structure, dividend policy and capital budgeting. Current developments such as mergers and acquisitions, new securities, and small business finance are also studied.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

AC 231 and EC 105