

IC 102 : Leveling Up in the Library

This course will teach students the ins and outs of college-level research. It will ensure students are prepared to meet their professors' research expectations when it comes to preparing papers, presentations, speeches, and other projects. Students will learn a variety of searching techniques and information evaluation strategies. Taught by a librarian who will work closely with students throughout the course. Enrolls concurrently with EN 121 but may optionally be taken by transfer students and students enrolled in EN 208.
