

IS 204 : Integrating Cross-Cultural Experiences

This course constitutes the second of an interdisciplinary two-course sequence related to study abroad. This part focuses on integrating the experience of students returned from abroad into the remainder of their undergraduate career, anticipating graduation, applying to graduate school, or searching for a job. Required for students returned to campus from study abroad.

Credits 1.0

Semester Offered

Offered every semester