

MA 133 : Precalculus

Precalculus is a course that explores functions (linear, power, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric), and triangle trigonometry through multiple representations of mathematical ideas - words, numbers, graphs, and symbols. The course includes using these functions to create mathematical models to address questions about phenomena from the world around us.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

MA 103, appropriate placement recommendation, or consent of the instructor