

NU 340 : Advanced Health Assessment

This course focuses on the theoretical and practical skills necessary to perform comprehensive physical, psychosocial, and cultural assessments of individuals, families, and groups. Gathering of specific data, across the lifespan and in vulnerable populations, is used to address common health problems. [Essential I; II; VI; VIII]

Credits 4.0