

NU 410 : Ethical Leadership and Management in Nursing

Current theories of management, ethical leadership, and change theories are examined. Students use self-assessment and reflection drawing from ethical principles and virtues, moral theorists, caring and empathy to share how complex ethical decisions are made. Case studies are used to address how leaders manage common ethical issues within healthcare. [Essentials II; IV; VI; VIII]

Credits 4.0