

PO 388 : International Political Economy

A study of the interactions between states and markets in the international arena. Topics explored include the politics of international trade, the political regulation of international financial flows, and relations between developed and developing countries.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

PO 150 or PO 180