

PS 301 : Industrial - Organizational Psychology

An in depth look at the principles of psychology as applied to all organizational settings. Course oriented towards student discovering how psychologists have improved the satisfaction, safety, and productivity of the work environment.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisite Courses

PS 101: Introduction to Psychology