

SP 102 : Spanish for Global Citizens II

The course is designed for students who have taken 101 or have had some language instruction in high school, building upon what they have already learned. Students learn basic sentence structures and vocabulary in Spanish and are introduced to the cultures of the people who speak Spanish. They also acquire the language skills and cultural knowledge to travel on their own to the countries where Spanish is spoken.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

SP 101 or equivalent or consent of instructor