

TH 485 : Senior Capstone: Theatre Directing

This course examines the role of the director and how he or she translates technique and theory into the world of the stage with a focus on exploration and collaboration with actors and designers. Additionally, students will gain project management and leadership experience, practicing the organizational and communication skills required to helm a production. The final outcome of the course for each student will be a fully realized production of a one-act play in the ICEBOX.
