

Abandoned Property

Any student owned property must be removed at the time of check-out. At the discretion of the College, items left behind valued at less than $50 will be disposed of or donated to a local charity. Items with a value of $50 or more will be held for three days. At the end of three days those items will also be disposed of or donated.