

MG 454 : Marketing Management

Marketing Management integrates the study of methods and models for marketing decisionmaking; emphasizes the application of analytical tools and behavioral and quantitative models to marketing decision-making. It is an expansion of the study and application of the marketing mix, SWOT analysis, consumer behavior and research.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisite Courses

MG 354: Marketing