BI 342 : Parasitology

A detailed study of eukaryotic parasites (protozoa, helminths, and medically relevant arthropods) that afflict animals and humans with an emphasis on life cycles, treatment and control, and the impact on human and animal lives.

Credits 4.0

Prerequisites

BI 110 or BI 107 or consent of the instructor

Semester Offered

Offered alternate years